Line-by-Line Instructions: Schedule CR-5 and MI-1040CR-5

Lines not listed are explained on the form.

Schedule CR-5

Column A: Agreement number or contract number is found in the lower right corner of each agreement. The first two numbers represent the county where the property is located. The middle set of numbers is the actual contract number. The final six numbers are the year of expiration, i.e., 123103 (December 31, 2003). The contract number retains its original series throughout the term of the agreement. However, a letter may be added to indicate that the agreement was split into multiple agreements. The final six numbers change when the agreement is reduced or extended. Always use the contract number on your most recently recorded agreement and attach a copy of each 2003 tax statement that corresponds to the agreement number listed.

Column B: List the 2003 taxable value for each parcel of land that you owned in 2003. The taxable value is found on your property tax statement(s) for each agreement. The total taxable value for each agreement must be listed; do not list each individual parcel. You may also contact your local assessor for this information.

Notes: If the property tax statement includes taxable value for land not covered by an FDRA, the taxable value reported in column B must be adjusted accordingly. The taxable value that cannot be claimed must be determined by the local assessor's office and submitted on his or her official letterhead.

If the property tax statement includes taxable value for land on more than one agreement, the taxable value reported in column B must be separated according to land in each agreement. The local assessor will be able to determine what the breakdown is based on the legal descriptions of the land enrolled under each agreement.

Column C: For each agreement, check the "Yes" box if you attached paid tax receipts for 2002 or 2003. If paid receipts are not attached, check the "No" box. If you do not check a box, your Farmland Preservation Credit will be issued jointly to you and the treasurer for the county where the property is located.

Note: 2003 property tax statements must be attached regardless of which box is checked in column B. If you e-file your MI-1040CR-5, you do not need to send your property tax statements unless requested by mail.

Column D: Enter "I" if you are the individual owner or co-own the land with your spouse, "J" if you are a joint owner with someone other than your spouse, "P" if the land is owned by a partnership, or "S" if the land is owned by an S corporation.

Column E: If the land is owned by you and someone other than your spouse, enter your percent of income from the signed statement or your percent of ownership based on the number of owners. If the land is owned by a partnership, enter your percent of income or ownership. All partners must use the same basis for filing. If the land is owned by an S corporation, enter your percent of stock ownership.

Column F: Individuals enter the taxes from each tax agreement for the portion of land enrolled under an agreement. Joint owners, partners, and shareholders enter only their allocated share of taxes from each tax statement for the portion of land enrolled under an agreement.

Note: If the property tax statement includes taxes for land not covered by an FDRA, the taxes reported in column F must be reduced accordingly. The amount of taxes that cannot be claimed must be determined by the local assessor's office and submitted on his or her official letterhead. The 1 percent collection fee may be included. Do not include penalties, interest or special assessments.

If the property tax statement includes taxes for land on more than one agreement, the taxes reported in column F must be separated according to land in each agreement. The local assessor will be able to determine what the breakdown is based on the legal descriptions of the land enrolled under each agreement.
